11- Principles and methods of revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized when the transaction outcome can be determined reliably and the Company has the ability to obtain business profit from this transaction.

- Sales revenue is recognized when all five (5) of the following conditions are simultaneously satisfied:

- (a) The Company has transferred most of the risks and rewards associated with ownership of the products or goods to the buyer;
- (b) The Company no longer holds the right to manage the goods as the owner of the goods or the right to control the goods;
- (c) Revenue is determined relatively reliably
- (d) The Company will obtain economic benefits from the sales transaction;
- (e) Identify the costs associated with the sales transaction.

- Revenue from a service provision transaction is recognized when the outcome of that transaction can be reliably determined

In case a service provision transaction involves multiple periods, revenue is recognized in the period according to the results of completion as at the Balance Sheet date of that period. The result of a service provision transaction is determined when all four (4) following conditions are met

- (a) Revenue is determined relatively reliably;
- (b) There is a possibility of deriving economic benefits from the transaction providing that service;
- (c) Determine the work completed at the balance sheet date;
- (d) Determine the costs incurred for the transaction and the costs to complete the service provision transaction.

12-Loan interest expense

Borrowing costs include loan interest and other costs incurred directly related to the Company's loans. Borrowing costs

Recorded in business results in the year when incurred unless capitalized in accordance with Vietnamese Accounting Standards and Current corporate accounting regime.
